

AGREEMENT

between

Ecolandia Environmental Environmental Science Park, hereafter referred to as "Ecolandia", with registered office in Reggio Calabria, Via Ciccarello n. 77, operating headquarters in Reggio Calabria Via A. Scopelliti snc Arghillà - VAT number 02682200809, represented by Prof. Antonio Perna.

and IKSDP (International Kenyan Scouts Development Project), hereafter referred to as "IKSDP", with registered office at the Nyandiwa International Scout Center PO Box 12 - 40333 Nyandiwa Gwasssi - KENYA, represented by the Director Mr. Antonio Labate.

and Azimut Alta Formazione APS Association, hereinafter referred to as "Azimut", with registered office in Reggio Calabria, Via Scopelliti - Contrada Arghillà c / o Parco Ecolandia, represented by President arch. Maria Rachele Bellomi.

Provided that

- Ecolandia is the manager of the public property Parco Ludico Tecnologico Ambientale called Ecolandia, located in Reggio Calabria, Arghillà, and owned by the Municipality of Reggio Calabria - Italy;
- IKSDP (International Kenya Scout Development Project), a non-profit organization recognized by the Kenyan government, is the promoter of the international cooperation project called "Harambee Gwasssi" and carried out at the IKSDP Scout Center in the village of Nyandiwa, on the shores of Lake Victoria (Homa Bay County - Kenya), inside which there is the Nyamgondho Mini park;
- Azimut is the promoter of the "Calabria for Harambee" international cooperation project and promoter and animator of the "Cooperation Room" site at the Environmental Technological Park Ecolandia;
- the parties intend to sign a collaboration and cooperation agreement with a mutual promotional purpose, of synergy for the implementation of concrete programs of promotional activities of environmental and educational-cultural importance, as well as to propose themselves as complementary structures to users, single or grouped, in learning process; to cooperate for the realization of projects of collective interest, providing knowledge and skills to each other.

Evaluated that

- International cooperation for development constitutes a frontier of commitment aimed at the social and cultural promotion of communities and an occasion for the concrete promotion of a culture of justice and peace;
- that commitment in international relations and in international solidarity, economic, political, social and cultural cooperation among countries represents one of the objectives and at the same time an instrument to face the challenge of the world human development, in line with the 2014-2020 community planning and with the new 2015-2030 Sustainable Development Goals, launched at the beginning of 2015 by the UN Secretary-General;
- that the Regional Law of 10 January 2007, n. 4 "Cooperation and international relations of the Calabria Region" recognizes the "Cooperation with the Countries facing the Mediterranean, with Developing Countries (PVS) and those with economies in transition as defined by the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), an essential instrument of solidarity between people for the promotion of human rights and a culture of peace, in accordance with constitutional principles, international declarations and community and national norms".

All this premised and considered, and the premises and considerations are valid between Ecolandia, IKSDP and AZIMUT as above represented, the following convention is stipulated:

Art. 1 Object

The object of the present Convention is the collaboration between Ecolandia and the Park Authority for the implementation of actions and activities aimed at the integrated promotion of the respective institutional goals and competences, including the diffusion of ecological and environmental culture starting from the scholastic community; to research and development; participation in projects and networks, etc. The parties intend to sign a collaboration and cooperation agreement with a reciprocal promotional nature, for synergy for the implementation of concrete programs of promotional activities of environmental and educational-cultural importance, especially those aimed at the range of interest associated with the school and scientific knowledge, and to propose itself as complementary structures to schools in the learning process; to cooperate for the realization of projects of collective interest, providing knowledge and skills to each other.

Art. 2 Content of the activities

Object of the agreement are methodologies and tools for the enhancement and recognition of an integrated offer of cultural and naturalistic activities in a logic of cooperative exchange, which favors the enhancement of cultural and landscape resources, linking the flows tourism in their national and international circuits, especially the school community, contributing to the deseasonalization and at the same time protecting local resources in the logic of an eco-sustainable and responsible tourism.

In particular, the activities to be carried out are:

1. setting up at the Parco Ludico Tecnologico Ambientale Ecolandia an informative /educational space for the "Calabria for Harambee" project and the Nyamgondho Mini park;
2. design, implementation and promotion of projects and development activities for the Nyandiwa community;
3. activation on the web spaces of the respective bodies of information and promotional content related to this agreement and to the activities of subsequent realization;
4. design and sharing of artistic, scientific and cultural contents to be made available to users of the facilities available to the three organizations through visits, educational workshops, awareness events;
5. environmental / cultural education actions to be shared through a training program specifically aimed at the school population;
6. co-design activities on environmental education, research and development, network construction;
7. organization of joint and / or integrated activities on issues of common interest to be carried out in the structures available to the three bodies.

For the purpose of carrying out these activities, the following tools will be activated:

- study trips; field research activities; training internships; fields of work and voluntary work;
- experimental projects in the scientific and naturalistic fields;
- awareness raising and fund raising activities;
- elaboration of didactic and experiential paths.

The above activities can be implemented and integrated with other activities and actions through a simple exchange of correspondence that refers to this agreement.

Art. 3
Commitment and roles of the parties

The signatories commit themselves, within the limits of their respective responsibilities and their respective roles, as specified in the following articles of the present agreement, to the realization of the agreement, through the implementation of the activities referred to in art. .2.

Each of the three signatory entities will identify an internal contact person with the task of maintaining relations, monitoring the performance of the activities referred to in art. 2 of the present Agreement, formulating observations, suggestions and giving the necessary indications regarding any problems that may arise.

Art. 4
Obligations of the parties

Ecolandia, IKSDP and Azimut are committed to make available human and instrumental resources for the successful outcome of the Project, each according to their role and their skills.

Art. 5
Ecolandia's prerogatives

It is the right of Ecolandia to take indispensable measures regarding the need to manage the spaces granted as per article 2.1 of the present agreement.

Art. 6
Revision of the Agreement

In case of factual or legal significant occurrences, the parties may request the revision of this agreement. The organization receiving the proposal for the revision of this agreement is obliged to examine the proposal itself and to specifically justify its deductions in this regard.

Art.7
Length and duration

The duration of the agreement is fixed in years 5 starting from the signing of the present agreement, with the possibility of tacit renewal.

This document is signed digitally pursuant to Legislative Decree 82/2005 and subsequent amendments. and related rules, which replaces the document and the handwritten signature.

The President of Ecolandia Srl
Prof. Antonio Perna

The Director of IKSDP
Antonio Labate

The President of Azimut Alta Formazione AP
Arch. Maria Rachele Bellomi

Signed 02.21.2019